On March 15, 2013, this Court granted Plaintiffs' Motion for Leave to File Amended Complaint (Docs. 30, 31) without prejudice to Defendant filing a motion to dismiss or stay and Plaintiffs filing a motion for preliminary injunction, and, during oral argument, this Court requested that the parties attempt to coordinate such motions so as to be heard on the same day (the "Court's Request").

On April 4, 2013, Plaintiffs filed their Notice of Motion and Motion for Preliminary Injunction ("Plaintiffs' Motion") (Doc. 34) with a calendared hearing date and time of May 10, 2013, at 9:00 a.m. Prior to the filing of Plaintiffs' Motion, Plaintiffs' counsel communicated with Defendant's counsel and agreed that Plaintiffs would file their motion so that it could be heard on May 10, 2013, with a regularly-noticed hearing date and Defendant's counsel indicated that Defendant would also notice a motion to dismiss or stay to be heard on May 10, 2013.

On April 10, 2013, Defendant filed her Motion to Dismiss and/or Stay Action ("Defendant's Motion") (Doc. 38) with a calendared hearing date and time of May 17, 2013, at 9:00 a.m.

All parties and their respective counsel are mindful of the Court's Request, and of both counsel for Plaintiffs being unavailable after May 10, 2013, for a later hearing date that month.

Plaintiffs' Motion was filed in the normal course (i.e., no shortened time) such that the dates for Defendant's Opposition and Plaintiffs' Reply remain as provided in Civil L.R. 7-3.

Defendant's Motion was filed with a calendared hearing date and time of May 17, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. Defendant's counsel concede that the motion was filed outside the scope of the permitted time provided for in Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(3) because Defendant's counsel mistakenly assumed that the time limit of Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a)(1)(B) governed.

During a lengthy meet and confer among counsel for the parties on April 15, 2013, inter alia, the following was discussed: i) the parties should continue to attempt to adhere to the Court's Request; and ii) Plaintiffs' counsel are both unavailable because of the due date to give birth of Plaintiffs' lead counsel's wife and prior long-standing obligations of Plaintiffs' additional counsel. Counsel for both sides also discussed the scheduling difficulties of Plaintiffs' counsel after May 17, 2013.

Accordingly, the parties request that Defendant's Motion be reset for May 10, 2013. The only changes in time would be for: i) Defendant's Motion to be re-calendared for hearing on May 10, 2013, at 9:00 a.m., rather than May 17, 2013 at 9:00 a.m., so as to be consistent with the Court's Request; and ii) Defendant's Reply to Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Motion to be due on or before April 29, 2013, rather than May 1, 2013.

The potential harm and prejudice if this Court does not approve this Stipulation is that i) Plaintiffs' Motion and Defendant's Motion may not be able to be heard in accordance with the Court's Request and ii) matters have been calendared in the Superior Court for the County of Contra Costa on June 14, 2013, that relate to Plaintiffs' Motion.

As set forth above, this Stipulation arises based upon an April 15, 2013 meet and confer among counsel for all parties thereby satisfying the requirement of Civil L.R. 6-3(a) and 7-11(a). Further, there have been no previous time modifications in this case, whether by stipulation or order of this Court.

The parties do not believe that the requested relief would have any effect on the overall schedule for the case.

As an ancillary matter, Defendant has filed an Administrative Motion for Leave to File an Extended Brief in support of Defendant's Motion (Doc. 39), specifically 31 pages. Counsel for the parties have further agreed that Plaintiffs will not oppose that Administrative Motion, and that Defendants will waive any opposition to a comparable Administrative Motion, if filed by Plaintiffs, for a comparable number of pages, and then only if Plaintiffs determine this is needed. STIPULATION Pursuant to Civil L.R. 6-2 and 7-11 Plaintiffs and Defendant, acting through their 6 respective counsels, hereby stipulate and respectfully request that this Court to order that: 8 1. Defendant's Motion to Dismiss and/or Stay Action (Doc. 38) is recalendared to May 10, 2013, at 9:00 a.m., so as to be heard by the Court at the same date and time as Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction (Doc. 34); 2. Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss and/or Stay Action (Doc. 38) is to be filed on or before April 24, 2013, and Defendant's Reply to Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss and/or Stay Action (Doc. 38) is to be filed on or before April 29, 2013; 15 3. Defendant's Administrative Motion for Leave to File an Extended Brief in support of Defendant's Motion (Doc. 39), specifically 31 pages, is granted without opposition by Plaintiffs; and 4. Any Administrative Motion for Leave to File an Extended Brief by Plaintiffs, specifically 31 pages, is to be granted with opposition waived in advance by Defendant.
